Notes

1. Section numbers in the Document History above refer to the numbers of sections in the cited version of this document, not necessarily the same as in the current version.
2. Some portions of text in this document are in bold type. These portions should not be ignored or substantively amended unless the national legislation out of which they are born changes. The council should maintain the standing orders in bold type in their current form because these reflect statutory requirements. If the council wishes to alter slightly the wording of the standing orders in bold type, any such amendments must not have the effect of undermining, overriding or conflicting with statutory requirements.

3. Use of the word “chairman” (and similar) in this document should not be taken to assume that women are precluded from taking such a role.

28 Monitoring

1 Rules of debate

- a. Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b. A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c. A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d. If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e. An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f. If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g. An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h. A councillor may move an amendment to his/her own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i. If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman.
- j. Subject to Standing Order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- k. One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
 - l. A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- m. The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
- n. Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate on the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
- o. Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except:
 - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
 - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he/she last spoke;
 - iii. to make a point of order;
 - iv. to give a personal explanation; or
 - v. to exercise a right of reply.
- p. During the debate on a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he/she considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he/she is concerned by.

- q. A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his/her decision shall be final.
- r. When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
 - i. to amend the motion;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business;
 - iii. to adjourn the debate;
 - iv. to put the motion to a vote;
 - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;
 - vi. to refer a motion to a committee or subcommittee for consideration;
 - vii. to exclude the public and press;
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
 - ix. to suspend a particular standing order or orders excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.
- s. Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his/her right of reply.
- t. Excluding motions moved under standing order 1(r) above, the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed five minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.

2 Disorderly conduct at meetings

- a. No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b. If a person or persons disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c. If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) above is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

3 Meetings generally

- a. Meetings of the council shall normally be held at Yarnscombe Victory Hall at 7.30pm on a Wednesday (normally the fourth Wednesday in a month). Meetings shall not take place in premises which at the time of the meeting are used for the supply of alcohol, unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost. Smoking is not permitted at meetings.
- b. The dates and agendas for meetings shall be posted on the village notice board and on the website. A minimum of three clear days' notice of meetings shall be given to councillors and the public. The minimum three days for notice shall not include the day on which notice was issued, the day of the meeting, a Sunday, a day of the Christmas break, a day of the Easter break or of a bank holiday or a day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning.

- c. Meetings shall be open to the public unless their presence is prejudicial to the public interest by reason of the confidential nature of the business to be transacted or for other special reasons. The public's exclusion from part or all of a meeting shall be by a resolution which shall give reasons for the public's exclusion.
- d. Minutes of all meetings shall be taken by the Clerk or, in the Clerk's absence, by an alternative approved by the council.
- e. Members of the public may make representations, answer questions and give evidence at a meeting which they are entitled to attend in respect of the business on the agenda. There shall be a Public Participation and Public Feedback session near the beginning of the agenda. A record of these sessions shall be included in the minutes of the meeting.
- f. Each member of the public is entitled to speak once only in respect of business itemised on the agenda and shall not speak for more than five minutes.
- g. In accordance with standing order 3(e), a question shall not require a response at the meeting nor start a debate on the question. The chairman of the meeting may direct that a written or oral response be given.
- h. A person who speaks at a meeting shall direct his/her comments to the chairman of the meeting.
- i. Only one person is permitted to speak at a time. If more than one person wishes to speak, the chairman of the meeting shall direct the order of speaking.
- j. Subject to standing order 3(k), a person who attends a meeting is permitted to report on the meeting whilst the meeting is open to the public. To "report" means to film, photograph, make an audio recording of meeting proceedings, use any other means for enabling persons not present to see or hear the meeting as it takes place or later or to report or to provide oral or written commentary about the meeting so that the report or commentary is available as the meeting takes place or later to persons not present.
- k. A person present at a meeting may not provide an oral report or oral commentary about a meeting as it takes place without permission.
- l. The press shall be provided with reasonable facilities for the taking of their report of all or part of a meeting at which they are entitled to be present.
- m. Subject to standing orders which indicate otherwise, anything authorised or required to be done by, to or before the chairman of the council may in his/her absence be done by, to or before the vice-chairman of the council (if there is one).
- n. The chairman of the council, if present, shall preside at a meeting. If the chairman is absent from a meeting, the vice-chairman of the council (if there is one), if present, shall preside. If both the chairman and the vice-chairman are absent from a meeting, a councillor as chosen by the councillors present at the meeting shall preside at the meeting.
- o. Subject to a meeting being quorate, all questions at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the councillors and non-councillors with voting rights present and voting.

- p. The chairman of a meeting may give an original vote on any matter put to the vote, and in the case of an equality of votes may exercise his/her casting vote whether or not he/she gave an original vote.

See standing orders 5(h) and 5(i) for the different rules that apply in the election of the chairman of the council at the annual meeting of the council.

- q. Unless standing orders provide otherwise, voting on a question shall be by a show of hands. At the request of a councillor before voting takes place, the voting on any question shall be recorded so as to show whether each councillor present and voting gave his/her vote for or against that question. If at least two councillors present request it, voting on any given question shall be by secret ballot.

- r. The minutes of a meeting shall include an accurate record of the following:

- i. the time and place of the meeting;
- ii. the names of councillors who are present and the names of councillors who are absent;
- iii. interests that have been declared by councillors and non-councillors with voting rights;
- iv. the grant of dispensations (if any) to councillors and non-councillors with voting rights;
- v. whether a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights left the meeting when matters that they held interests in were being considered;
- vi. if there was a public participation session; and
- vii. the resolutions made.

- s. A councillor or a non-councillor with voting rights who has a disclosable pecuniary interest or another interest as set out in the council's code of conduct in a matter being considered at a meeting is subject to statutory limitations or restrictions under the code on his/her right to participate and vote on that matter.

- t. No business may be transacted at a meeting unless at least one-third of the whole number of members of the council are present and in no case shall the quorum of a meeting be less than three.

- u. If a meeting is or becomes inquorate no business shall be transacted and the meeting shall be closed. The business on the agenda for the meeting shall be adjourned to another meeting.

- v. A meeting shall not exceed a period of three hours. Any business outstanding thereafter shall be deemed 'lost', although it may be offered for consideration on the agenda of a following meeting.

4 Committees and subcommittees

At the present time Yarnscombe Parish Council does not have any committees or subcommittees. If the need arises in the future then the relevant section from the NALC Model Standing Orders 2018 (England) or its successor document will be included here.

5 Ordinary council meetings

- a. In an election year, the Annual Meeting of the council shall be held on or within 14 days following the day on which the councillors elected take office.
- b. In a year which is not an election year, the Annual Meeting of the council shall be held on such day in May as the council decides (normally the fourth Wednesday in May).

- c. If no other time is fixed, the Annual Meeting of the council shall take place at 7.00pm.
- d. In addition to the annual meeting of the council, at least three other ordinary meetings shall be held in each year on such dates and times as the council decides.
- e. The first business conducted at the annual meeting of the council shall be the election of the chairman and vice-chairman (if there is one) of the council.
- f. The chairman of the council, unless he or she has resigned or becomes disqualified, shall continue in office and preside at the annual meeting until his or her successor is elected at the next annual meeting of the council.
- g. The vice-chairman of the council, if there is one, unless he or she resigns or becomes disqualified, shall hold office until immediately after the election of the chairman of the council at the next annual meeting of the council.
- h. In an election year, if the current chairman of the council has not been re-elected as a member of the council, he or she shall preside at the annual meeting until a successor chairman of the council has been elected. The current chairman of the council shall not have an original vote in respect of the election of the new chairman of the council but shall give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- i. In an election year, if the current chairman of the council has been re-elected as a member of the council, he or she shall preside at the annual meeting until a new chairman of the council has been elected. He or she may exercise an original vote in respect of the election of the new chairman of the council and shall give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- j. Following the election of the chairman of the council and vice-chairman (if there is one) of the council at the annual meeting, the business shall include:
 - i. In an election year, delivery by the chairman of the council and councillors of their acceptance of office forms unless the council resolves for this to be done at a later date. In a year which is not an election year, delivery by the chairman of the council of his or her acceptance of office form unless the council resolves for this to be done at a later date;
 - ii. Confirmation of the accuracy of the minutes of the last meeting of the council;
 - iii. Review and adoption of appropriate Standing Orders, Financial Regulations (including Separation Of Duties) and Internal Control documents;
 - iv. Receipt of a statement of the Parish council's accounts for the period ending the previous 31 March;
 - v. Review of arrangements (including legal agreements) with other local authorities, not-for-profit bodies and businesses;
 - vi. Review of representation on or work with external bodies and arrangements for reporting back;
 - vii. In an election year, to make arrangements with a view to the council becoming eligible to exercise the general power of competence in the future;
 - viii. Review of inventory of land and assets including buildings and office equipment, and the remainder of the Parish council Information document;
 - ix. Confirmation of arrangements for insurance cover in respect of all insurable risks;
 - x. Review of the council's and/or staff subscriptions to other bodies;

- xi. Review of the council's Complaints Procedure and Grievance And Discipline Procedures;
- xii. Review of the council's policies, procedures and practices in respect of its obligations under freedom of information and data protection legislation (see also standing orders 11, 20 and 21);
- xiii. Review of the council's policy for dealing with the press/media;
- xiv. Review of the council's employment policies and procedures;
- xv. Review of the council's Action Plan;
- xvi. Review of the council's Emergency Plan;
- xvii. Review of the council's Grant Awarding Policy;
- xviii. Review of the council's Training Policy;
- xix. Review of the council's Risk Management document;
- xx. Review of the council's expenditure incurred under s.137 of the Local Government Act 1972 or the general power of competence;
- xxi. Determining the date, time and place of ordinary meetings of the council up to and including the next annual meeting of the council.

6 Extraordinary meetings of the council

- a. The chairman of the council may convene an extraordinary meeting of the council at any time.
- b. If the chairman of the council does not call an extraordinary meeting of the council within seven days of having been requested in writing to do so by two councillors, any two councillors may convene an extraordinary meeting of the council. The public notice giving the time, place and agenda for such a meeting must be signed by the two councillors.

7 Previous resolutions

- a. A resolution shall not be reversed within six months except either by a special motion, which requires written notice by at least two councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with Standing Order 9, or by a motion moved in pursuance of the recommendation of a committee or a subcommittee.
- b. When a motion moved pursuant to standing order 7(a) has been disposed of, no similar motion may be moved within a further six months.

8 Voting on appointments

- a. Where more than two persons have been nominated for a position to be filled by the council and none of those persons has received an absolute majority of votes in their favour, the name of the person having the lowest number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken. This process shall continue until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. A tie in votes may be settled by the casting vote exercisable by the chairman of the meeting.

9 Motions for a meeting that require written notice to be given to the Proper Officer

- a. A motion shall relate to the responsibilities of the meeting for which it is tabled and in any event shall relate to the performance of the council's statutory functions, powers and obligations or an issue which specifically affects the council's area or its residents.
- b. No motion may be moved at a meeting unless it is on the agenda and the mover has given written notice of its wording to the Proper Officer at least six clear days before the next meeting. Clear days do not include the day of the notice or the day of the meeting.
- c. The Proper Officer may, before including a motion on the agenda received in accordance with standing order 9(b), correct obvious grammatical or typographical errors in the wording of the motion.
- d. If the Proper Officer considers the wording of a motion received in accordance with standing order 9(b) is not clear in meaning, the motion shall be rejected until the mover of the motion resubmits it, so that it can be understood, in writing, to the Proper Officer at least six clear days before the meeting.
- e. If the wording or subject of a proposed motion is considered improper, the Proper Officer shall consult with the chairman of the forthcoming meeting or, as the case may be, the councillors who have convened the meeting, to consider whether the motion shall be included in the agenda or rejected.
- f. The decision of the Proper Officer as to whether or not to include the motion on the agenda shall be final.
- g. Motions received shall be recorded and numbered in the order that they are received.
- h. Motions rejected shall be recorded with an explanation by the Proper Officer for their rejection.

10 Motions at a meeting that do not require written notice

- a. The following motions may be moved at a meeting without written notice to the Proper Officer:
 - i. to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes of a meeting;
 - ii. to move to a vote;
 - iii. to defer consideration of a motion;
 - iv. to appoint a person to preside at a meeting;
 - v. to change the order of business on the agenda;
 - vi. to proceed to the next business on the agenda;
 - vii. to require a written report;
 - viii. to extend the time limits for speaking;
 - ix. to exclude the press and public from a meeting in respect of confidential or other information which is prejudicial to the public interest;
 - x. to hear no further from a councillor or a member of the public;
 - xi. to exclude a councillor or member of the public for disorderly conduct;
 - xii. to suspend the meeting temporarily;
 - xiii. to suspend a particular standing order (unless it reflects mandatory statutory requirements);
 - xiv. to adjourn the meeting;
 - xv. to close a meeting.

11 Management of information

See also standing order 20.

- a. The council shall have in place and keep under review, technical and organisational measures to keep secure information (including personal data) which it holds in paper and electronic form. Such arrangements shall include deciding who has access to personal data and encryption of personal data.
- b. The council shall have in place, and keep under review, policies for the retention and safe destruction of all information (including personal data) which it holds in paper and electronic form. The council's retention policy shall confirm the period for which information (including personal data) shall be retained or if this is not possible the criteria used to determine that period (e.g. the Limitation Act 1980).
- c. The agenda, papers that support the agenda and the minutes of a meeting shall not disclose or otherwise undermine confidential information or personal data without legal justification.
- d. Councillors, staff, the council's contractors and agents shall not disclose confidential information or personal data without legal justification.

12 Draft minutes

- a. The minutes of a meeting shall include an accurate record of the following:
 - i. the date, time and place of the meeting;
 - ii. the names of councillors present and absent;
 - iii. interests that have been declared by councillors and non-councillors with voting rights;
 - iv. whether a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights left the meeting when matters that they held interests in were being considered;
 - v. if there was a public participation session; and
 - vi. the resolutions made.
- b. At meetings that are inquorate at the outset, as opposed to meetings that become inquorate for one item because one or more councillors have declared an interest, and at which, therefore, no official business can take place, a set of minutes shall be produced that contain simply the date/time/place of the meeting, names of councillors present and apologies given, followed by a statement that the meeting was inquorate and therefore no further business took place.
- c. If the draft minutes of a preceding meeting have been served on councillors with the agenda to attend the meeting at which they are due to be approved for accuracy, they shall be taken as read.
- d. There shall be no discussion about the draft minutes of a preceding meeting except in relation to their accuracy. A motion to correct an inaccuracy in the minutes shall be moved in accordance with standing order 10(a)(i).
- e. The accuracy of draft minutes, including any amendment(s) made to them, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.

- f. If the chairman of the meeting does not consider the minutes to be an accurate record of the meeting to which they relate, he shall sign the minutes and include a paragraph in the following terms or to the same effect:
- “The chairman of this meeting does not believe that the minutes of the meeting of the council held on [date] in respect of () were a correct record but his/her view was not upheld by the meeting and the minutes are confirmed as an accurate record of the proceedings.”
- g. While the council’s gross annual income or expenditure (whichever is higher) does not exceed £25,000, it shall publish draft minutes on the village notice board and on the parish website which is publicly accessible and free of charge not later than one month after the meeting has taken place. Before the minutes are signed in accordance with standing order 12(e) above, they shall be clearly marked as being draft, such mark to be taken as indicating that the minutes are subject to possible correction of inaccuracies in accordance with standing order 12(d) above.
- h. Subject to the publication of draft minutes in accordance with standing order 12(g) and standing order 20(a) and following a resolution which confirms the accuracy of the minutes of a meeting, the draft minutes or recordings of the meeting for which approved minutes exist shall be destroyed.

13 Code of conduct and dispensations

See also standing order 3(s).

- a. In accordance with the recommendations of the National Association of Local Councils, Yarnscombe Parish Council has adopted the Code of Conduct in use within Torridge District Council. All councillors and non-councillors with voting rights shall observe the code of conduct adopted by the council.
- b. Yarnscombe Parish Council has also adopted the Dispensations Procedure Guide For Parish Councils issued by Torridge District Council. If the Dispensations Procedure Guide differs from the remainder of this section then the Guide shall take priority. The authority to grant dispensations is reserved for the full Parish Council; it may not be delegated.
- c. Unless he/she has been granted a dispensation, a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he/she has a disclosable pecuniary interest. He/she may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he/she had the interest.
- d. Unless he/she has been granted a dispensation, a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he/she has another interest if so required by the council’s code of conduct. He/she may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he/she had the interest.
- e. Dispensation requests shall be in writing and submitted to the Proper Officer as soon as possible before the meeting, or failing that, at the start of the meeting for which the dispensation is required.
- f. A decision as to whether to grant a dispensation shall be made by a meeting of the council, or committee or sub-committee for which the dispensation is required and that decision is final.
- g. A dispensation request shall confirm:
- i. the description and the nature of the disclosable pecuniary interest or other interest to which the request for the dispensation relates;

- ii. whether the dispensation is required to participate at a meeting in a discussion only or a discussion and a vote;
 - iii. the date of the meeting or the period (not exceeding four years) for which the dispensation is sought; and
 - iv. an explanation as to why the dispensation is sought.
- h. Subject to standing orders 13(e) and 13(g), a dispensation request shall be considered at the beginning of the meeting of the council, or committee or sub-committee for which the dispensation is required.
- i. A dispensation may be granted in accordance with standing order 13(f) if having regard to all relevant circumstances any of the following apply:
- i. without the dispensation the number of persons prohibited from participating in the particular business would be so great a proportion of the meeting transacting the business as to impede the transaction of the business;
 - ii. granting the dispensation is in the interests of persons living in the council's area;
 - iii. it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.

14 Code of conduct complaints

- a. Upon notification by the District or Unitary Council that it is dealing with a complaint that a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights has breached the council's code of conduct, the Proper Officer shall, subject to standing order 11, report this to the council.
- b. Where the notification in standing order 14(a) relates to a complaint made by the Proper Officer, the Proper Officer shall notify the chairman of council of this fact, and the chairman shall nominate another staff member to assume the duties of the Proper Officer in relation to the complaint until it has been determined and the council has agreed what action, if any, to take in accordance with standing order 14(d).
- c. The council may:
- i. provide information or evidence where such disclosure is necessary to progress an investigation of the complaint or is a legal requirement;
 - ii. seek information relevant to the complaint from the person or body with statutory responsibility for investigation of the matter;
- d. Upon notification by the District or Unitary Council that a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights has breached the council's code of conduct, the council shall consider what, if any, action to take against him/her. Such action excludes disqualification or suspension from office.

15 Proper Officer

- a. The Proper Officer shall be either (i) the clerk or (ii) other staff member(s) nominated by the council to undertake the work of the Proper Officer when the Proper Officer is absent.
- b. The Proper Officer shall:

- i. at least three clear days before a meeting of the council, a committee or a sub-committee,
 - serve on councillors, by delivery or post at their residences or by email authenticated in such manner as the Proper Officer thinks fit, a signed summons confirming the time, place and the agenda (provided the councillor has consented to service by email), and
 - provide, in a conspicuous place and submit to the website administrator for publishing on the website, public notice of the time, place and agenda (provided that the public notice with agenda of an extraordinary meeting of the council convened by councillors is signed by them).

See standing order 3(b) for the meaning of clear days.
- ii. subject to standing order 9, include on the agenda all motions in the order received unless a councillor has given written notice at least three days before the meeting confirming his/her withdrawal of it;
- iii. convene a meeting of the council for the election of a new chairman of the council, occasioned by a casual vacancy in his/her office;
- iv. facilitate inspection of the minute book by local government electors;
- v. receive and retain copies of bye-laws made by other local authorities;
- vi. hold acceptance of office forms from councillors;
- vii. hold a copy of every councillor's register of interests;
- viii. assist with responding to requests made under freedom of information legislation and rights exercisable under data protection legislation, in accordance with the council's relevant policies and procedures;
- ix. liaise, as appropriate, with the council's Data Protection Officer;
- x. receive and send general correspondence and notices on behalf of the council except where there is a resolution to the contrary;
- xi. assist in the organisation of, storage of, access to, security of and destruction of information held by the council in paper and electronic form subject to the requirements of data protection and freedom of information legislation and other legitimate requirements (e.g. the Limitation Act 1980);
- xii. arrange for legal deeds to be executed;
See also standing order 23.
